

ARTEVENTO

From 11 to 22 October
One Sky One World

The capital of Wind Art Cervia, ITALY

The world's longest running international kite festival, ARTEVENTO, based in Cervia (Italy) since 1981, is scheduled in two main events in the months of April and October and is ready to conclude its amazing 44th edition with a rich program dedicated to ancient traditions, peace and environmental sustainability.

After the spring edition, ARTEVENTO presents the autumn event "One Sky One World" from 11 to 13 of October to celebrate brotherhood between peoples with kite flying, workshops for adults and children, music and a peace march to promote the value of unity in diversity.

TOUR AROUND THE WORLD IN 80 KITES Exhibition in the ancient Salt Warehouse

Selected by the Italian Ministry of Culture as a witness to the preservation of kite cultures from all over the world, ARTEVENTO presents a new exhibition from the collection of the Kite Museum paying homage to the great heritage of Japan through the legacy of legendary wind masters displayed in a stunning setting.

www.artevento.com